Financial agency Honner strengthens team with new appointments

Financial journalist Malavika Santhebennur joins as Account Manager

SYDNEY, 20 March 2019: Leading corporate and financial services communications consultancy, Honner, has announced the appointment of Malavika Santhebennur as Account Manager.

Malavika has a strong background in financial services journalism. She brings over five years' experience writing about financial advice, superannuation, funds management and self-managed superannuation funds across titles including Money Management, Super Review and most recently selfmanagedsuper.

"We are thrilled to have Malavika join our growing team of financial PR professionals," said Founder Philippa Honner. "Malavika has a strong depth of financial markets knowledge and deep industry network that will benefit both the agency and our clients."

"We continue to broaden the range of capabilities across our team to bring clients the best strategic advice and support across traditional PR, digital amplification, content creation and marketing solutions."

Honner provides a range of PR, communications and marketing services for local and global brands operating in Australia's corporate, investment, professional and financial services sector.

The agency now has a team of 22 PR professionals following recent appointments of Craig Morris as Head of Marketing Solutions; former Mozo PR manager Kirsty Timsans as Senior Account Executive; and recent QUT graduate Jacqueline Coleman as Account Coordinator.

Malavika joined the team on Monday 11 March 2019.
