Janus Henderson Investors' Australian fixed interest team bolsters resources

11 December 2018

Janus Henderson Investors is pleased to announce that Shan Kwee will transition to Co-Portfolio Manager of the Australian Fixed Interest Team's (Team) credit strategies including the Diversified Credit and Cash Enhanced Funds. Shan will continue to partner alongside Noel Murphy in co-managing these portfolios.

Jay Sivapalan, Co-Head of the Australian Fixed Interest Team stated "Since joining the Team in January 2018 as a Credit Strategist, Shan has established himself as a key contributor in shaping portfolio strategy from both a top-down and bottom-up perspective. His strong credentials within the corporate debt sector and prior experience in managing credit portfolios are a valuable asset to the Team. This appointment recognises the confidence we have in his capacity to play an integral role within the Team."

In addition, Dimitri Diamand has been appointed as Fixed Interest Analyst and Dealer. Dimitri has been with Janus Henderson Investors since 2013 and was most recently a Portfolio Risk Associate within the Investment Risk team.

"Dimitri has been held in high regard by various teams within the organisation and his contribution has been recognised over this period. Dimitri also brings with him strong academic credentials in Actuarial Studies gained at the Australian National University." Sivapalan added.

Matt Gaden, Head of Australia, added "These promotions acknowledge the talent within the company. We feel very fortunate to have identified such high quality investment professionals with the key personal attributes that are fundamental to the firm's guiding principles."

"The Team now comprises of eight investment professionals with a long track record of successfully adding value in managing a range of cash and fixed income portfolios." Gaden added.
